COMING BY CAR

From Northern Italy, Rome or Naples.

- Take the highway Autostrada A1 Rome-Naples, (IMPORTANT: Before Naples, in Caserta, there are directional signboards for the Amalfi Coast; be careful to don't follow them because they would bring you on a much longer route).
- Continue onto E45 (signs for Salerno – Reggio Calabria).
- Merge onto Autostrada A3.
- Exit at Castellammare di Stabia and follow the signs to Sorrento. Before you reach Sorrento you'll begin to see signs to Positano and the Amalfi Coast, follow them, and 7 kilometers after Positano you will be in Praiano. Our hotel parking is at the end of the town, on your right. Take the elevator down to the reception: floor -6.

The journey lasts approximately 4 hours from Rome and 1 hour and half from Naples.
Read carefully our tips below both if you have a GPS or not.

GPS Tips

- If you put Praiano in your Sat-Nav, it will give you a completely different route letting you drive down to Vietri sul Mare making your trip last much longer. Our suggestion is to put at the beginning of your journey Meta as your destination, (it's an hamlet of Sorrento) and once you reach it, put Praiano: In this way you'll be sure to take the best route.
- Also if the route explained above is the most comfortable one, in summer it gets packed with traffic so we recommend a different one: at the beginning of your trip put Agerola as your destination and once you're there put Praiano.
- If you don't have the GPS, after some kilometres from the exit of the highway of Castellammare di Stabia, immediately after a tunnel, turn the right for Gragnano and follow the signs to Agerola. Once you are in Agerola follow the signs to Amalfi, and a couple of kilometres before it you'll find yourself in an intersection with signs to Positano, (as a referring point, there's a bar at this intersection called POSAFLORA), turn right at the intersection and go straight on this road for 6 kilometers until you'll reach Praiano and find our hotel parking on your left. Take the elevator to the reception at floor -6.

From Southern Italy

From the south, take the highway Autostrada Reggio Calabria-Salerno and take the exit to Salerno – Costiera Amalfitana.

From Puglia, take the highway Autostrada Bari-Napoli, take the exit to Avellino and then take the freeway Avellino-Salerno.

In both cases reach Vietri sul Mare and then keep going straight on the main road to Amalfi. Praiano is 7km after Amalfi and you'll find our hotel parking on your left. Take the elevator to the reception at floor -6.

COMING BY PUBLIC TRANSPORTS

From Naples Capodichino Airport or Naples train station.

Take a taxi or a bus from Naples Airport to the train station Napoli Centrale located in Piazza Garibaldi. By taxi it takes more or less 30 minutes to get there.

At a lower level in the train station runs the Circumvesuviana train that goes from Naples to Sorrento. Be sure to buy the tickets before you get on board.

Once you are in Sorrento you have the SITA bus stop in front of the station. Buy the tickets in the shop that's right next to the station and look for the bus to Amalfi.

There's a bus stop right on our parking. Ask help to the driver to stop you at the right place and be sure to don't get off in the center of the town since we are at the end of Praiano, and this means two kilometers after the downtown.

The Circumvesuviana takes one hour to go from Naples to Sorrento and the SITA bus takes one hour/one hour and half to reach Praiano.
